MEMORANDUM FOR: John N. McMahon
 Deputy Director of Central Intelligence

FROM : Bo Denysyk
 Deputy Assistant Secretary
 for Export Administration

SUBJECT : [] Microelectronics Case Study on the USSR

STAT

[] I would like to take this opportunity to express my gratitude for your "Microelectronics Case Study on the USSR" and commend the responsible group of analysts for a job very well done. I feel that the study is "super", an excellent piece of work that could well serve as an analytical standard for any future tech transfer studies. Studies such as this one help to provide a firm foundation on which export control policy may be formulated, and directly support export enforcement in the U.S. government. They are also valuable tools in encouraging our allies to cooperate in strengthening COCOM export controls. I strongly encourage that more studies of this type be performed, not necessarily limited to the Bloc countries or the same technology area, but wherever possible. For example, tech transfer studies in the following areas would be of great interest:
